Value Proposition

“Release Pregnancy Anxiety.”

Problem/Solution overview

Our Preñada helps the pregnant woman and their companions. We want to reduce anxiety about the unfamiliar, facilitate good communication, and help mothers learn to love themselves in the present moment.

This is accomplished through experience sharing, knowledge organization, companionship, and spiritual exploration.

Unlike baby talk boards, health education software, and general positive thinking therapy.

We have the unfair advantage of providing accurate information about pregnancy and childbirth, allowing pregnant women to explore their values and increasing two-way interaction between partners.

Three Tasks

- Pregnancy Memo
- Pregnancy Tips
- Pregnancy Knowledge+
- Sorry baby but i really need that cool thing
